Manager Comments. February returns came from swap spread and basis trades. Portfolio rate sensitivity remains low; a 25bp parallel move in Treasuries would move NAV by roughly 0.5%. We expect to keep interest-rate exposure light until inflation data stabilizes. Liquidity in our core cash-futures basis positions remains good, and margin usage is 38% of available.

Returns are net of fees for the founders share class. Negative returns shown in parentheses. Fictional fund for demonstration purposes.
